How to Make Your Marketing More Effective: Passion + Experience = Expertise

Now, more than ever, your marketing efforts need to make an impact. Not just once, but time after time, month after month, consistently throughout the year. That’s what you need in today’s economy and today’s business climate. That’s what you get when your farm, your stallion, or your equestrian business appears in The Sporthorse Directory.

With The Sporthorse Directory, you get a year’s worth of ongoing marketing and promotion, all for less than you’d expect to spend on a single ad in a national magazine.

You get marketing in print and online; bi-monthly email newsletter promotion, ongoing direct mailing throughout the year, strategic tack shop distribution, and targeted distribution at world-class events throughout the United States and Canada. You get it because we “get it”.

We share your passion for sport horses. We share your focus on excellence. We combine those qualities with our expertise in marketing sport horses to produce a Sporthorse guide that gives you the best of the best.

Like the European guides, we publish extensive information in an easily readable template. Like the American magazines, we showcase gorgeous advertising. Like only the best will do, The Sporthorse Directory goes even farther to add industry insights, statistical breeding data, reference sires, and bloodline information, plus articles written by top breeders, trainers, and judges.

How to Make Your Marketing More Effective: Print + Online = Synergy

The Sporthorse Directory continues to grow, and so can your marketing. In 2010, there will be 12,500 copies in print, plus more than 5,000 web site visitors per month, bi-monthly newsletters emailed to more than 3,000 breeders around the world, and the numbers continue to grow. Print and online strategies provide unparalleled synergy for your marketing investment.

Create Impact

The Sporthorse Directory creates impact with distribution at world-class events such as the World Equestrian Games, Dressage at Devon, Del Mar Horse Show, Equine Affaire, Spruce Meadows, Royal Canadian Horse Show, plus select breed inspections/keurings and Sporthorse shows throughout North America.

Reach Your Market

The Sporthorse Directory reaches your market with print copies mailed directly to US and Canadian breeders and online requestors. Remember those Google and Yahoo ratings? Online visitors request The Sporthorse Directory year-round. Plus, you get distribution where your market goes to shop: Tack shops, horse shows, and equine expos.

Make a Beautiful Impression

Gorgeous full-color printing on high-quality glossy paper provides an exceptional showcase for your stallion, farm, or equestrian business. Professional design combines excitement with elegance, and you get the perfect presentation, in print and online. For your permanent collection, special hardbound copies are available as well

How to Make Your Marketing More Effective: Rates + Reach = Great Value

Your marketing deserves the best value for your investment, and The Sporthorse Directory offers options to fit every budget. By combining your print and online marketing, you reach a larger audience more frequently and leave a more lasting impression. We call that creating great value.
